Cedar Hill Police Department Patrol Observation Program

Code of Conduct

The staff of the Cedar Hill Police Department welcomes your participation as an observer in our Patrol Ride Along Program. You should be aware that the nature of police duty is sometimes dangerous and at times involves tense situations. In the interest of effective police operations and your own safety, you will comply with the following regulations:

1. The officer's decision as to the extent of your involvement in situations is absolute. You must obey any instruction given to you by the officer without question or delay.
2. For your safety, the officer may determine your presence at a scene is not advisable. In such cases, the officer may leave you at a location determined safe by the officer, where the officer or another will return to pick you up and resume your observation period.
3. You will not consume any alcoholic beverages immediately prior to or during your observation period, nor will you report for your observation period under the influence of any intoxicating beverage or drug.
4. Unless you are a Texas peace officer, you will not carry a firearm or a weapon prohibited by Texas or federal law. If you are licensed to carry a concealed handgun under applicable Texas law, you will not be permitted to carry the handgun during your observation period. If you are found to be armed, the observation period will be terminated, and you are subject to arrest for violation of applicable law.
5. If you are a law enforcement officer, you will not convey to any person, by acts or statements that you are or have the powers and authority of a law enforcement officer.
6. You will refrain from involving yourself in any physical struggle or verbal arguments with any persons encountered by the officer; however, you are bound by law to render assistance to the officer should he request it of you.
7. You will not become involved in any police investigation or discuss any investigation with another citizen. You will not make known to any unauthorized person the identity of persons suspected of or arrested for any offense, nor will you reveal the identity of any persons detained by police for any reason.
8. As a guest of the Department, you are expected to be attired and groomed in an appropriate business like-manner. JEANS AND T-SHIRTS ARE PROHIBITED. The platoon commander and supervisor have the authority to deny you permission to ride along if your appearance is such that would challenge the respect and authority of the Police Department.
9. You are limited to one observation in a calendar quarter unless a repeat observation period is authorized by the Chief of Police.
10. You will remain with your assigned officer for the entire duration of your observation period, unless circumstances specified in #2, above, require temporary interruption of your observation period or unless your conduct is determined to impair effective police operations, in which event your observation period will be immediately terminated.
